Dear Mr. Moti Balyan,

I spoke to you on the phone on January 28, 2016 in regards to me being physically attacked inside the 76 Gas station on 8/20/2015 and you didn't remember if the LAPD had contacted you or not in regards to getting the recorded video camera tape of the incident where I was attacked inside the 76 Gas station.

On January 29, 2016, you gave me the phone for your ex employee Anthony that worked there when the assault happened, so that I could contact him in regards to getting an affidavit from him for Federal Court. The phone number you gave me (818) 823-9702, I called it after our phone conversation ended and that was a wrong number.

Is there any chance you accidentally gave me the wrong phone to contact Anthony? If so, could you please mail me his phone number so I can contact him for Federal Court?

Let me know.

Thank You,

Kathy Gold

March 14, 2016

Dear Mr. Kuldip,

I spoke to you in person at 23706 Victory Blvd on January 27, 2016 in regards to me being physically attacked inside the 76 Gas station on 8/20/2015. You told me that the LAPD never came in there while you were there and asked for a copy of the recorded video camera tapes of the attack. You also told me that in this gas station you keep records of it for 30 days where most gas stations only keep it for 10 days so the LAPD had plenty of time to get it. You also wondered why I didn't come by and get it myself and I explained, I had to go to the hospital for my injuries and now I have PTSD from this incident of being attacked in addition to my physical injuries. I was unable to come into this gas station and do the LAPD's job because of my multiple PTSD's.

Is there any way the LAPD came in to this 76 station and got a copy of the recorded video camera tapes while you weren't there? Did somebody else give them the copies of the recorded video camera tapes?

Let me know.

Thank You,

Kathy Gold
